

Swift Developments Mark Opening of Murder Trial of Century

WOMEN STORM COURT. Here is part of the crowd that couldn't get into the jammed Somerville, N. J., court for opening of Hall-Mills trial. Many curious women brought their children along and lingered near the court all day.

MRS. HALL BORE UP WELL under ordeal of first day of her trial for murder. She was visibly affected only when surprise witnesses testified to presence of Willie Stevens in De Russey Lane on murder night. Photo shows Mrs. Hall leaving court with Commander Arthur Carpender.

TRIAL OF CENTURY BEGINS. Lifting of curtain on Hall-Mills murder trial jammed the Somerville, N. J., courthouse yesterday. The state produced two surprise witnesses, who shook alibi of Willie Stevens. Photo above shows principals in the drama as trial opened. They are: (1) Mrs. Carpenter, (2) Commander Carpenter, (3) Mrs. Hall, (4) Willie Stevens, (5) Henry Stevens, (6) Judge Cleary, (7) Justice Parker, (8) Charlotte Mills. (Photo Graphic.)
